

Programme Educational Objectives (PEO) of M. Tech in Energy Technology

1. To produce researchers in the field of renewable and non-renewable energy technology.
2. To prepare students to pursue research for emerging as a good academician in a leading institution as well as acquire full-fledged knowledge in the technological advancements of a specific energy field to serve in an industry.
3. Equip students to understand and evaluate alternative energy sources and planning of energy source-demand chain.
4. To enable to acquire knowledge of relevant technologies and multi-disciplinary fields including broad social, ethical and environmental issues within which the engineering is practiced.
5. To develop problem solving approach using analytical abilities, effective communication skills and team work
6. To create awareness and understanding related to societal issues, apart from developing a sense of commitment to the community and profession with sincere involvement.